19.2 You acknowledge that gambling may be addictive and that participation on the Platform is undertaken at your own risk. You confirm that you understand the financial risks associated with real-money poker play.

Any increase or removal of limits may be subject to cooling-off period at the Company's discretion. Decreases in limits take effect immediately or as soon as technically feasible.

19.5 Any attempt to circumvent self-exclusion may result in permanent Account closure and forfeiture of funds. The Company may also block linked or related Accounts and payment methods during the self-exclusion period. Promotional communications shall cease where required during active self-exclusion.

19.6 To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company shall not be liable for losses incurred where you choose not to use responsible gaming tools or continue real-money poker play despite awareness of potential harm, provided the Company has made such tools reasonably available.

20. COMMUNICATIONS, CUSTOMER SUPPORT & RECORDING

20.1 All communications between you and the Company may be monitored, recorded, and retained for quality assurance, compliance, dispute resolution, and regulatory purposes. This includes emails, live chat, support tickets, voice calls, and in-platform poker table chat.

20.2 When communicating with the Company or its representatives, you must not:

- (a) use abusive, offensive, defamatory, or threatening language;
- (b) make discriminatory or hateful statements;
- (c) harass or intimidate staff or other Users.

21. GAME INTEGRITY & PROHIBITED PRACTICES

21.1 The Platform operates as a real-money poker environment and requires strict adherence to fair play and game integrity standards. All players must compete independently and without prohibited assistance.

21.2 The following conduct is strictly prohibited:

- (a) collusion between players, including sharing hole cards or strategy coordination;
- (b) chip-dumping or intentional chip transfers;
- (c) soft play against associated or known players;
- (d) ghosting;
- (e) multi-accounting or account sharing;
- (f) use of bots, automated scripts, or artificial intelligence agents;
- (g) use of Real-Time Assistance (RTA), solvers, or decision engines during live play;
- (h) use of prohibited tracking overlays or dynamic HUD tools is restricted;
- (i) stream sniping or use of delayed/hidden information sources to gain advantage;
- (j) Screen sharing, remote access, or permitting any third party to view, control, or influence gameplay in real time is prohibited. This restriction does not apply to live streaming or broadcasting gameplay to the public, provided that viewers, or any other third party, do not control, direct, or otherwise influence gameplay in real time;

(k) Bum Hunting: "Bum hunting" refers to the act of selectively targeting specific players perceived as weaker, while deliberately avoiding action against other opponents. This practice undermines fair play and the competitive integrity of the platform. Examples of bum hunting include, but are not limited to:

- Sitting out at cash game tables until a particular user joins, then immediately resuming play;
 - Following a specific user's activity in the lobby and joining games only when that user is seated;
 - Consistently leaving or refusing to play once preferred opponents leave the table.
- While sitting out may be acceptable in certain circumstances (such as when starting a table), repeatedly denying action to some players while selectively engaging others is strictly prohibited. The Company reserves the right to investigate patterns of this behaviour and take corrective action, which may include warnings, gameplay restrictions, or account sanctions;

(l) Buttoning, or grimming, is the act of playing heads-up with the intent to avoid paying an equal share of big blinds, typically by quitting early or selectively withholding action to gain an edge. This behaviour is considered unfair and is not permitted on the Website. The Company follows a common-sense policy and does not expect players to track big blind counts during long heads-up sessions. Only pure heads-up sessions are reviewed for buttoning; hands played on short-handed or breaking 6-max tables are excluded. If a player loses most or all of their stack, they are not expected to rebuy, and such situations are not treated as buttoning violations. Any other form of blind avoidance will be determined and resolved at the sole discretion of the Company. Repeated abuse may lead to warnings, play restrictions, or further disciplinary actions at the Company's discretion;

(m) Table Blocking / Camping: Joining heads up tables without the intention of playing, denying other players action by sitting out (and not leaving the table), or simply sitting at a table to prevent other players' access to the table is prohibited;

(n) Lobby Manipulation: Sitting a player with the sole intention of spawning another table (including Heads-Up tables) is prohibited and can lead to gameplay restrictions, account sanctions, suspensions, or permanent bans, at the discretion of the Company.

21.3 The Company may use automated detection systems, behavioural analysis, hand history review, device fingerprinting, and security tools to investigate poker integrity risks.

21.4 Where poker integrity violations are suspected or confirmed, the Company may, without prior notice:

- (a) void hands, results, or tournament outcomes;
- (b) confiscate affected funds or winnings;
- (c) redistribute impacted balances to affected players where appropriate;
- (d) restrict tables or tournament access;
- (e) suspend or permanently close Accounts.

21.5 The Company's poker integrity determinations shall be final and binding, subject only to mandatory dispute procedures under applicable law.
